
Wei-Yang Andy Lin ♦ 林 維 洋

Violist

www.andylinviola.com

Taiwanese born violist and erhuist (Chinese violin), Wei-Yang Andy Lin, is recognized as one of the most promising active performers of today. Praised by The Strad "The great Molto adagio... elicited some of the night's most sensitive work, especially from Wei-Yang Andy Lin on viola.", he is the artistic director and co-founder of the New Asia Chamber Music Society. He came to the U.S. in 1997 to attend the Idyllwild Arts Academy and holds his bachelor and master's degrees from The Juilliard School, and he also received his Doctor's degree in Musical Arts from SUNY Stony Brook. Mr. Lin has won numerous competitions including Taiwan National Viola Competition, the Idyllwild Concerto Competition, First Prize in the 2008 Juilliard Viola Concerto Competition and subsequently made his Lincoln Center solo debut at the Avery Fisher Hall (now the David Geffen Hall) with the Juilliard Orchestra. He was also the winner of the 2009 SUNY Stony Brook Concerto Competition. He has also appeared as soloist with orchestras such as Yonkers Philharmonic Orchestra in New York, Orford Academy Orchestra in Canada, Incheon Philharmonic in Korea and Children's Orchestra Symphony at the Lincoln Center.

In addition to his solo career Mr. Lin is an avid chamber musician and is a founding member of the award-winning string quartet, the Amphion String Quartet. The quartet was a winner of the 2011 Concert Artists Guild Victor Elmaleh Competition and was on the roster of the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society CMS2 Program from 2013~2016. The quartet has released their debut album with the Nimbus Records in England, in which the album was picked by the New York Times as "The Best 25 Classical Music Recordings of 2015." Mr. Lin is also a member of the Musicians of Lenox Hill and serves as principal violist of the Solisti Ensemble and the New York Classical Players. He has also served as a principal violist of the International Sejong Soloists. He has also been guest principal violist in orchestras such as Jersey City Philharmonic, Mid Atlantic Opera Orchestra and Princeton Symphony Orchestra. Additionally, he has been privileged to perform for the former President of the United States, Bill Clinton and the former President of Taiwan, Ten-Hui Lee. He has also been invited to perform chamber music with Itzhak Perlman where The New York Times described "Mr. Perlman, playing first violin... answered in kind by the violist Wei-Yang Andy Lin."

In addition to his accomplishments as a classical musician, he is also a world recognized professional erhu player. He has recorded film music for a number of movies and short films, including "The Blood Brothers" and the award winning short film "Daughters" (Best Original Score at NYU Tisch Film Festival). He has performed the erhu solo part at the U.S. Premiere of Sir Peter Maxwell Davies' "Kommilitonen!" with the Juilliard Opera Production, as well as the world premiere of Jeeyoung Kim's "Engraft" for solo erhu and string orchestra with Solisti Ensemble at Carnegie Hall. He also premiered Winnie Lan-In Yang's "Fantasy for Erhu and Strings" with the New York Classical Players. He has been invited by the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra and the Grant Park Symphony Orchestra of the Grant Park Music Festival in Chicago to play the solo erhu part in "Iris dévoilée" by Chen Qi-Gang. He has also appeared as an erhu solo in the U.S. Premiere of Yeow-Kwon Chung's "Red Cliff" Piano Concerto with the Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia. Recently, he has performed a haegeum concerto "Choosang" on the erhu with Busan Metropolitan Traditional Music Orchestra at the Busan Maru International Music Festival in Korea. He has also been invited by the Metropolitan Museum to give recitals at their Gallery Concert Series and Patrons Lounge Concert. He has appeared at OK Mozart and Chamber Music Northwest festivals, as well as a recital at the Caramoor Center for the Music and the Arts. He also performs annually at the Spring Celebration presented by the Chinese Cultural Arts Institute in Harrisburg Pennsylvania. Andy plays on a viola by one of his best friends Jacob Ho. (www.andylinviola.com)

Cell: 917.442.6618 ♦ Email: andylinviola@yahoo.com

301W, 53rd St., #7K, New York, NY 10023

Amphion String Quartet ♦ Artistic Director of New Asia Chamber Music Society